A – Choosing a holiday

You are planning where to go for your next school holidays. You are considering the following options:

- going to the seaside with your family
- going to the mountains with your friends.

Talk about how enjoyable each option would be. Say which option you would prefer, and why.

Permission to reproduce items where third-party owned material protected by copyright is included has been sought and cleared where possible. Every reasonable effort has been made by the publisher (UCLES) to trace copyright holders, but if any items requiring clearance have unwittingly been included, the publisher will be pleased to make amends at the earliest possible opportunity.

To avoid the issue of disclosure of answer-related information to candidates, all copyright acknowledgements are reproduced online in the Cambridge Assessment International Education Copyright Acknowledgements Booklet. This is produced for each series of examinations and is freely available to download at www.cambridgeinternational.org after the live examination series.

Cambridge Assessment International Education is part of Cambridge Assessment. Cambridge Assessment is the brand name of the University of Cambridge Local Examinations Syndicate (UCLES), which is a department of the University of Cambridge.

B – School event

Your school wants to hold a special event to celebrate the end of the school year. You and other students are involved in organising this event. You are considering the following options:

- a fashion show, with clothes made by students
- a music concert, with students performing.

Talk about the advantages and disadvantages of each option. Say which option you would prefer, and why.

Permission to reproduce items where third-party owned material protected by copyright is included has been sought and cleared where possible. Every reasonable effort has been made by the publisher (UCLES) to trace copyright holders, but if any items requiring clearance have unwittingly been included, the publisher will be pleased to make amends at the earliest possible opportunity.

To avoid the issue of disclosure of answer-related information to candidates, all copyright acknowledgements are reproduced online in the Cambridge Assessment International Education Copyright Acknowledgements Booklet. C – Photographs

You want to change the photograph on the screen of your computer. You want to take the photograph yourself. You are considering the following options:

- taking a picture of a beautiful landscape while on holiday
- taking a picture of your friends or family during a celebration.

Talk about how easy or difficult each option would be. Say which option you would prefer, and why.

Permission to reproduce items where third-party owned material protected by copyright is included has been sought and cleared where possible. Every reasonable effort has been made by the publisher (UCLES) to trace copyright holders, but if any items requiring clearance have unwittingly been included, the publisher will be pleased to make amends at the earliest possible opportunity.
