I have spent a wonderful week with my family here at the seaside. Unfortunately, today it is the last day of our holidays. Last Saturday the long journey with my brother, my little sister and my parents was very pleasant.

We travelled by train. It took six hours. It was quicker and easier than by car, since there were no problems. We admired the scenery, listened to music, ate lunch and read magazines. The other passengers were not talking.

When we arrived at the station with our suitcases, we took a taxi to go to the hotel. We had an enormous room with a bathroom on the first floor. From the balcony we could see a large swimming pool. Many people were swimming.

Immediately, I put on my bathing costume and went down to sit in the sun. Half an hour later my parents called me and told me that it was time to get changed to go to the restaurant. However, we were so tired that we fell asleep before dinner.

Every day we did different things. We visited a pretty village, where a band was playing and some children were dancing on the square. We went sailing, ran on the sand and ate ice cream. Everything was perfect. I hope to come back next year.
