General Marking Guidance

- All candidates must receive the same treatment. Examiners must mark the first candidate in exactly the same way as they mark the last.
- Mark schemes should be applied positively. Candidates must be rewarded for what they have shown they can do rather than penalised for omissions.
- Examiners should mark according to the mark scheme not according to their perception of where the grade boundaries may lie.
- There is no ceiling on achievement. All marks on the mark scheme should be used appropriately.
- All the marks on the mark scheme are designed to be awarded. Examiners should always award full marks if deserved, i.e. if the answer matches the mark scheme. Examiners should also be prepared to award zero marks if the candidate's response is not worthy of credit according to the mark scheme.
- Where some judgement is required, mark schemes will provide the principles by which marks will be awarded and exemplification may be limited.
- When examiners are in doubt regarding the application of the mark scheme to a candidate's response, the team leader must be consulted.
- Crossed out work should be marked UNLESS the candidate has replaced it with an alternative response.
- Mark schemes will indicate within the table where, and which strands of QWC, are being assessed. The strands are as follows:
 - i) ensure that text is legible and that spelling, punctuation and grammar are accurate so that meaning is clear*
 - ii) select and use a form and style of writing appropriate to purpose and to complex subject matter*
 - iii) organise information clearly and coherently, using specialist vocabulary when appropriate.*

17(a)	Award one mark for each device and one mark for an arrow showing the direction of data flow  The diagram shows a central 'System Unit' (tower PC) connected to four peripheral devices: 'Speakers', 'Mouse', 'Keyboard', and 'Monitor'. The 'Speakers' are at the top left, 'Mouse' at the top right, 'Keyboard' at the bottom left, and 'Monitor' at the bottom right. Arrows indicate the direction of data flow: from the System Unit to the Speakers, from the Mouse to the System Unit, from the Keyboard to the System Unit, and from the System Unit to the Monitor.	(6)

Level	Mark	Descriptor
	0	No rewardable material.
1	1 - 2	The candidate will have produced brief responses. The answer is likely to be in the form of a list. They will have considered at least one disadvantage but possibly no advantages. Only a limited number of points will have been considered. Very limited understanding will be shown.
2	3 - 4	The candidate will have considered both advantages and disadvantages, although the discussion is likely to be one sided, probably concentrating on disadvantages. Points will be described with limited detail and the response is likely to be unstructured.
3	5 - 6	The discussion will show an understanding of the issues, with points made described in detail. The discussion will involve advantages and disadvantages and will be balanced. It will make a number of useful points that show a clear understanding of the issues.
