MARK SCHEME for the May/June 2014 series

0470 HISTORY

0470/42

Paper 4 (Alternative to Coursework), maximum raw mark 40

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2014 series for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level components and some Ordinary Level components.

(b) (i) Level 0 – No evidence submitted or response does not address the question. [0]

Level 1 – One mark for each valid aspect to a maximum of two e.g. Came from an idea by Samuel Nicholson, President of the Manchester and Salford Trades Council; to form a Trades Union Congress both to publicise the trades' union case and to serve as a general forum of the trade union movement. Founded in 1868. [1–2]

(ii) Level 0 – No evidence submitted or response does not address the question. [0]

Level 1 – Identifies strike. Strike by female workers at Bryant and May to improve conditions. [1–2]

Level 2 – Describes strike. Award an extra mark for any valid aspect described in additional detail e.g. Conditions in which the match girls worked and the medical consequences were brought to light by Annie Besant. Their parades and publicity gained them popular and parliamentary support. Bryant and May tried early resistance but in the end gave in to the match girls' demands etc. [2–4]

(iii) Level 0 – No evidence submitted or response does not address the question. [0]

Level 1 – Single reason. One for the reason, one for the explanation. [1–2]

Level 2 – Multiple reasons. One for each reason, one for each reason explained e.g. Because both had a degree of organisation and good leaders emerged – Annie Besant and Ben Tillett; public sympathy and material support – money and in kind – they got from other trades, workers, general public and, even, from abroad; they had good cases and employers realised early on that concessions would be required; Dockers brought London docks to a standstill and the economic argument was won etc. [2–6]

(iv) Level 0 – No evidence submitted or response does not address the question. [0]

Level 1 – Simple assertions. Yes, some were better off. No, others were not. [1]

Level 2 – Explanation of success OR lack of success, single factor given e.g.

Success – Victories of unskilled workers at Bryant and May and in the docks achieved this, as did some others; Parliament became more sympathetic and some supportive legislation was passed; trade union membership numbers rose and this put more pressure on employers to settle before strikes happened etc.

Lack – Conditions for many remained poor and poverty showed little sign of decreasing in poorer city areas; some strikers and their families suffered great hardship during strikes; aggressive counter-attacks by employers using 'lock-out' tactics to intimidate workers; Rowntree's survey showed the massive extent of persistent poverty at the end of the century etc.; [2]

Level 3 – Explanation of success OR lack of success with multiple factors. Allow single factors with multiple reasons.

OR

Undeveloped suggestions on BOTH sides of the argument (annotate BBB – Balanced but Brief). [3–5]

Level 4 – Answers that offer a balanced argument.

BOTH sides of success AND lack of success must be addressed. [6–8]

(a) (i) Level 0 – No evidence submitted or response does not address the question. [0]

Level 1 – Repeats material seen in the source, no inference made. [1–2]

Level 3 – Supports valid inferences with reference to the source e.g. Inference that the West was ‘civilised’ from character speaking; dictating actions to Chinese and assumes both moral and physical right to do so – caption; sees Chinese as inferior – size of Emperor and gruesome artefacts etc. [5–6]

(ii) Level 0 – No evidence submitted or response does not address the question. [0]

Level 1 – Agrees OR disagrees, unsupported from the source. [1–2]

Level 2 – Agrees OR disagrees, supported from the source e.g.

Yes – Rebellion started to ‘spiral out of control’ and massacres took place of Christian Chinese; one of the reasons for Powers giving the Chinese the twenty-four hour ultimatum etc.

No – The Empress’ edict gave the Boxers a kind of legitimacy which angered the Powers and raised tensions; destruction of foreign property; availability of troops to enforce suppression etc. [3–5]

Level 3 – Agrees AND disagrees, supported from the source. Addresses the issue of ‘How far?’ [6–7]

(iii) Level 0 – No evidence submitted or response does not address the question. [0]

Level 1 – Useful/not useful – Choice made on the basis that one is more detailed/gives more information, but does not specify what information. [1]

Level 2 – Useful/not useful – One is a cartoon and the other is from a history book, so they could both be biased/unreliable. [2]

Level 3 - Choice made on the nature or amount of information given. Must specify what information. [3–5]

Level 4 – Choice made on the grounds of reliability.

Discussion of utility must be made on valid evaluation of source(s) in context. Include at this Level answers that cross reference between A and B to show reliability.

6 marks for one source, 7 marks for both. [6–7]

(b) (i) Level 0 – No evidence submitted or response does not address the question. [0]

Level 1 – One mark for each valid city to a maximum of two e.g. Peking, Shanghai, Canton, Swatow, Amoy, Ning Po etc. [1–2]

(ii) Level 0 – No evidence submitted or response does not address the question. [0]

Level 1 – Identifies aspects. Attack on and siege of foreigners by Boxers in Peking.[1–2]

(iii) Level 0 – No evidence submitted or response does not address the question. [0]

Level 1 – Single reason. One for the reason, one for the explanation. [1–2]

Level 2 – Multiple reasons. One for each reason, one for each reason explained e.g. long term – Chinese decline and foreign interventions, weak government etc. led to a weak prosecution of the war; Japan had decided to modernise during the nineteenth century and attitudes were of a modern, military country. Short term – China was poorly armed and organised with a divided leadership; Japan had a modernised army, well-trained and well-armed etc. [2–6]

(iv) Level 0 – No evidence submitted or response does not address the question. [0]

Level 1 – Simple assertions. Yes, Britain was a great imperial power. [1]

Level 2 – Explanation of Britain causing decline OR other factors, single factor given e.g.

Brit – British victory in the Opium Wars weakened China both militarily and politically; Britain forced China to accept unfavourable trade treaties which weakened it economically and encouraged other countries to seek treaties; British missionaries helped to create divisions in Chinese societies etc.

Other – China already in a state of decay and decaying further; still feudal and no new technology or ways of thinking; weak and intrigue ridden dynasty; other nations interfered and helped in the decline of China etc. [2]

OR

Undeveloped suggestions on BOTH sides of the argument (annotate BBB – Balanced but Brief). [3–5]

Level 4 – Answers that offer a balanced argument.

BOTH sides of Britain causing decline AND other factors must be addressed.
