This document consists of 19 printed pages, 1 blank page and 1 insert.

SECTION A: CORE CONTENT

Answer any two questions from this Section.

- 1 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

By the mid-1840s, the ideas of national identity had started to move towards ideas of national unity. There were common themes among Italian patriots, most obviously the desire to destroy Austrian influence and interference in Italy. Differences centred on the moderates who favoured a more gradual approach leading to constitutional government whilst Mazzinian ideas focused more on achieving a republic.

From a British history textbook published in 2008.

- (a) Describe Mazzini's contribution to Italian nationalism. [5]
- (b) Why was Charles Albert unsuccessful against the Austrians in 1848–9? [7]
- (c) 'Italy was united by 1861.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

- 2 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

The strength of the army was one of the main concerns of William when he succeeded his brother Frederick William. Little had been done to increase the size of the army since 1815. The army's weaknesses were highlighted in 1859 when the war was over before the army had organised itself. As a result William appointed General Roon as Minister of War.

From a British history textbook published in 2007.

- (a) In what ways did the Prussians develop their military strength between 1859 and 1866? [5]
- (b) Why did Austria and Prussia go to war in 1866? [7]
- (c) 'The Zollverein was more important to the unification of Germany than the Franco–Prussian War.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

- 3 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

Japan saw Korea as a routeway into Asia. Korea had valuable mineral resources as well as giving access to Manchuria. The Russians were also showing an interest in Korea and began to build the Trans-Siberian railway in 1891 to make it easier to send troops to the Far East. These developments made China increasingly nervous.

From a British school textbook published in 1985.

- (a) Under the terms of the Meiji Constitution, what powers remained with the Emperor? [5]
- (b) Why was there conflict between Japan and China in 1894? [7]
- (c) 'Japan benefited more from the war against China (1894–5) than from the Russo-Japanese War (1904–5).' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

- 4 Look at the cartoon, and then answer the questions which follow.

An American cartoon published in 1905. 'Tête-À-Tête' means a private conversation between two people.

- (a) What preparations had Germany made for war by 1914? [5]
- (b) Why did the actions of the Kaiser over Morocco increase European tension? [7]
- (c) 'The actions of Austria-Hungary were more responsible for the outbreak of war in 1914 than the actions of any other country.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

5 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

It was a peace of revenge. It sowed a thousand seeds from which new wars might spring. It was as though the Devil had sat beside Clemenceau and whispered madness into the ear of Wilson and grinned across the table at Lloyd George.

From a book by a British historian, published in 1929.

- (a) What loss of territory was imposed on Germany by the Treaty of Versailles? [5]
- (b) Why were the 'Big Three' not satisfied with the Treaty of Versailles? [7]
- (c) 'The Treaty of Versailles was a wise settlement.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

6 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

The events of the last few days are one of the greatest diplomatic defeats this country and France have ever suffered. There can be no doubt that it is a tremendous victory for Herr Hitler. Without firing a shot, he has achieved a dominating position in Europe.

The leader of the British Labour Party, speaking in Parliament about the Munich Agreement, October 1938.

- (a) Describe events in the Saar in 1935. [5]
- (b) Why, by 1936, was Italy a threat to world peace? [7]
- (c) 'The main cause of war in 1939 was the weakness of Britain and France.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

7 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

If the situation in Hungary gets worse, we have decided to use all means at our disposal to bring the crisis to an end. The Soviet Union could not at any price allow a breach in the frontier in Eastern Europe.

The Soviet leader Khrushchev expressing his anxiety over Hungary, July 1956.

- (a) Describe the events in Hungary in October and November 1956. [5]
- (b) Why did Warsaw Pact forces invade Czechoslovakia in 1968? [7]
- (c) How important was the part played by 'Solidarity' in the decline of Soviet influence in Eastern Europe? Explain your answer. [8]

8 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

Five of the fifteen members of the Security Council of the United Nations Organisation (UNO) are permanent. If a decision of the Council is to be binding all five must agree. The General Assembly can overrule the Security Council. This happened for the first time during the Korean War.

From a British history textbook published in 1997.

- (a) Describe the humanitarian work of any two United Nations' agencies. [5]
- (b) Why have the organisation and membership of the UNO hindered its effectiveness? [7]
- (c) 'Events in Korea (1950–3) and the Congo (1960–3) demonstrated that the UNO was effective in peacekeeping.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

SECTION B: DEPTH STUDIES

Answer any one question from this Section.

DEPTH STUDY A: GERMANY, 1918–45

- 9 Look at the cartoon, and then answer the questions which follow.

A cartoon published in a British newspaper, 4 March 1933. 'Vox Populi' means 'Voice of the People'.

- (a) What were the aims and beliefs of the Nazi Party in the 1920s? [5]
- (b) Why did Hitler attempt the Munich Putsch? [7]
- (c) 'The main reason why Nazi electoral support increased after 1929 was Hitler's promise of "work, freedom and bread".' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

10 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

What we have achieved in two and a half years in the way of planning jobs and controlling prices and wages, was thought, only a few years ago, to be impossible. We only succeeded because we had the whole nation behind us. The destruction of the trade unions and the political parties was necessary for this success.

Hitler speaking in the Reichstag in 1935.

- (a) What actions did Hitler take to improve the German economy? [5]
- (b) Why did the Final Solution occur? [7]
- (c) How far did the war change everyday life in Germany? Explain your answer. [8]

DEPTH STUDY B: RUSSIA, 1905–41

11 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

There wasn't a scrap of food in the country. We were down to a quarter of a pound of bread per person. Then suddenly they announced the NEP. Cafes and restaurants started opening. It was capitalism. In my eyes what was happening was the very thing I had struggled against.

A Bolshevik supporter remembers the introduction of the NEP.

- (a) What was 'War Communism'? [5]
- (b) Why did sailors at Kronstadt revolt in March 1921? [7]
- (c) 'Lenin's New Economic Policy was unsuccessful.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]
