MARK SCHEME

Maximum Mark: 60

Published

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge International will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge International is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2022 series for most Cambridge IGCSE, Cambridge International A and AS Level and Cambridge Pre-U components, and some Cambridge O Level components.

This document consists of 65 printed pages.

Generic Marking Principles

These general marking principles must be applied by all examiners when marking candidate answers. They should be applied alongside the specific content of the mark scheme or generic level descriptors for a question. Each question paper and mark scheme will also comply with these marking principles.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 1:

Marks must be awarded in line with:

- the specific content of the mark scheme or the generic level descriptors for the question
- the specific skills defined in the mark scheme or in the generic level descriptors for the question
- the standard of response required by a candidate as exemplified by the standardisation scripts.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 2:

Marks awarded are always whole marks (not half marks, or other fractions).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 3:

Marks must be awarded positively:

- marks are awarded for correct/valid answers, as defined in the mark scheme. However, credit is given for valid answers which go beyond the scope of the syllabus and mark scheme, referring to your Team Leader as appropriate
- marks are awarded when candidates clearly demonstrate what they know and can do
- marks are not deducted for errors
- marks are not deducted for omissions
- answers should only be judged on the quality of spelling, punctuation and grammar when these features are specifically assessed by the question as indicated by the mark scheme. The meaning, however, should be unambiguous.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 4:

Rules must be applied consistently, e.g. in situations where candidates have not followed instructions or in the application of generic level descriptors.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 5:

Marks should be awarded using the full range of marks defined in the mark scheme for the question (however; the use of the full mark range may be limited according to the quality of the candidate responses seen).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 6:

Marks awarded are based solely on the requirements as defined in the mark scheme. Marks should not be awarded with grade thresholds or grade descriptors in mind.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Applying the Mark Scheme

- When marking a response the overall criterion to be considered should be - 'How good is this response to this question?'
- The 'Level Descriptor' should be used to decide the Level into which the quality of the answer fits.
- Exhaustive lists of possible facts are not given in the mark scheme, as there is often a choice of factual knowledge that candidates may use.
- WHERE EXAMPLES OF RESPONSES ARE GIVEN, THESE ARE NOT PRESCRIPTIVE, BUT ARE INTENDED AS A GUIDE. It is not possible to cover every possible type of response within a levels of response mark scheme and examiners are expected to use their professional judgement at all times in ensuring that responses are placed in the correct levels and given an appropriate mark within that level.
- Marking must be positive. Marks must not be deducted for inaccurate or irrelevant parts of answers. In itself, poor use of historical terminology, spelling, grammar or handwriting does not affect the mark. The overall quality of the answer to the question should be judged.
- If a candidate reaches a particular level s/he must be rewarded with a mark within that level. It is not necessary to work through the levels.
- The full range of marks should be used. Do not be afraid to award full marks or no marks. Failure to do this will seriously affect the distribution of marks. Be prepared to reward candidates who show any level of understanding. The mark scheme starts from basic acceptable response. Where a band of marks is indicated for a level these marks should be used with reference to the development of the answer within that level.

Assessment Objectives

- (a) recall, description
- (b) recall, explanation
- (c) recall, explanation and analysis

Question	Answer	Marks
1(a)	Describe what happened in Sicily in 1860.	4
	Level 1 One mark for each relevant point; additional mark for supporting detail 1–4 e.g. ‘Garibaldi’s volunteers landed at Marsala helped by Royal Navy vessels.’ ‘Garibaldi announced he was the dictator of Sicily.’ ‘Garibaldi’s forces defeated Neapolitan troops at Calatafimi.’ ‘Garibaldi laid siege to Palermo.’ ‘Palermo fell to Garibaldi’s forces.’ ‘Garibaldi had to put down revolts by local peasants.’ ‘By August, Garibaldi had control of all of Sicily.’ ‘Garibaldi’s forces left Sicily for the mainland.’
	Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question 0
1(b)	Why was Cavour important to the achievement of Italian unification?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons 6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘He was important to unification because of his diplomacy. He gave Britain and France the support of Piedmont in the Crimean War. A few years later this helped him do a deal with Napoleon III where France and Piedmont would go to war against Austria. This helped unification because Piedmont was able to take over Lombardy and eventually Modena and Tuscany. This was an important step towards Italian unification.’
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons 2–3 (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. ‘Cavour was important because of his diplomacy.’ ‘Cavour persuaded France to support Piedmont against Austria.’ ‘Cavour was responsible for Lombardy being taken over by Piedmont.’ ‘Cavour was important in Piedmont seizing the central Papal States like Umbria.’
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. ‘Cavour was important because his policies helped Italian unification a lot.’
	Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question 0

Question	Answer	Marks
1(c)	‘Rome was central to the Italian struggle for unification.’ How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘how far’	10
	As Level 4 plus evaluation.
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides	7–9
	A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.
	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks	4–6
	More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘I think Rome was very important in the struggle for unification. The main reason for that was the fact that Rome was under the control of the Pope. The Pope was head of the Catholic Church and the Catholic religion was very important in Italy. The Papacy also controlled states in the centre of Italy such as Umbria. This all meant that unification could not be achieved without either the Pope’s agreement or invading and taking the Papal States and Rome.’ OR e.g. ‘I do not think that Rome was that important. Pius IX was opposed to unification but it still happened. Garibaldi was able to conquer Sicily and Naples and Piedmont was able to occupy the central Papal States and Rome was powerless to do anything about it. Italian troops finally occupied Rome in 1870 but Italian unification was assured long before that.’
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes	2–3
	One mark for each point. e.g. ‘Pope Pius IX was against unification.’ ‘Its importance can be seen by the setting up of the Roman Republic in 1849.’ ‘Italian unification happened despite Rome.’ ‘Most Italians saw Rome as the head of Italy.’ ‘Rome controlled the Papal States and this made it important to unification.’ ‘Piedmont taking over some of the Papal States was an important step towards unification.’ ‘The Kingdom of Italy was set up without Rome.’ ‘The Italian army took over Rome in 1870, thus completing unification.’
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge	1
	e.g. ‘Rome was very important because of its position in Italy. Any unification had to find a way of dealing with Rome.’
	Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question	0

Question	Answer	Marks
2(a)	What was the Convention of Gastein?	4
	Level 1 One mark for each relevant point; additional mark for supporting detail 1–4 e.g. 'It was signed in 1865.' 'It followed the defeat of Denmark.' 'It was between Prussia and Austria.' 'It was about how Schleswig and Holstein would be governed.' 'It said that Prussia would govern Schleswig and Austria would govern Holstein.' 'It was an important factor leading to the war between Prussia and Austria.'
	Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question 0
2(b)	Why did Frederick William IV reject the offer by the Frankfurt Parliament of the position of Emperor of Germany?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons 6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'He rejected it because it was being offered by the Parliament and not by the German princes. He was most interested in reviving the Holy Roman Empire of princes under the authority of a Habsburg emperor. In that, the crown could only be offered to him by the princes.'
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons 2–3 (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'He was not really interested in a united Germany, but a revived Holy Roman Empire.' 'He thought only the German princes could offer him the crown.' 'He did not want the support of a Parliament voted by lower-class people.' 'He did not think the Parliament had the right to offer him the crown.'
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. 'He did this because he thought it would be too much of a risk to accept it and it might upset lots of people.'
	Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question 0

Question	Answer	Marks
2(c)	‘Bismarck’s approach to foreign policy in the period 1862–71 was to react to opportunities as they arose.’ How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘how far’	10
	As Level 4 plus evaluation.
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides	7–9
	A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.
	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks	4–6
	More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘I agree with this statement. He was given the first opportunity when Denmark invaded Schleswig. Another opportunity appeared when Spain offered its vacant throne to Prince Leopold (a relative of the Prussian king) and France objected to it. He made good use of these opportunities by isolating Austria and France before acting, but the opportunities had to be there in the first place.’ OR e.g. ‘I do not agree with this. I think Bismarck used his diplomacy to create opportunities which he then took. The wars that helped Prussia grow stronger and that gradually united Germany were all brought about by his diplomacy. The war with Austria which ended up unifying northern Germany under Prussian leadership was engineered by his diplomacy. He negotiated French neutrality, an alliance with Italy and then made it look as if the Austrians were the aggressors. All of this was only possible through his planning and scheming. He did a similar thing with France where he isolated it and then tricked it into going to war with Prussia.’
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes	2–3
	One mark for each point. e.g. ‘The defeat of Austria made Prussia the leading country in Germany.’ ‘The defeat of France in a war he engineered helped unify Germany.’ ‘Bismarck agreed not to help the Poles which ensured Russia did not intervene in the wars of the 1860s.’ ‘Denmark’s invasion of Schleswig gave him an opportunity.’ ‘Prussia appeared to be a champion of nationalism by defeating Denmark in 1864.’ ‘Diplomacy brought about the war with Denmark.’ ‘Bismarck used diplomacy to cause the war with Austria.’ ‘Bismarck used the issue of the Spanish succession to bring about the war with France by editing the Ems telegram.’

Question	Answer	Marks
2(c)	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. 'Bismarck waited for opportunities which he knew would eventually appear. He then took them.'
	Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question 0

Question	Answer	Marks
3(a)	What happened to the British ship 'Arrow' and its crew in October 1856?	4
	Level 1 One mark for each relevant point; additional mark for supporting detail 1–4 e.g. 'The Arrow was seized by the Chinese authorities in Canton.' 'The Arrow was suspected of piracy.' 'The crew of the Arrow were detained by the Chinese.' 'The British claimed the Chinese tore down the British flag.' 'The ship was not officially British because the registration had expired.' 'The British consul demanded the release of the crew.' 'Most of the crew were released.' 'The Arrow incident sparked off the Second Opium War.'
	Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question 0

Question	Answer	Marks
3(b)	Why did the French use a policy of assimilation in Senegal?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons 6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘Assimilation involved the local people having to use the French language, law, religion and culture. There was a promise that if they did this they could become French citizens. This happened in Senegal’s Four Communes. It was done because the French believed that one purpose of colonisation was to spread French civilisation to peoples of the world. They believed that French civilisation was superior to African civilisation and therefore it should be imposed on the African people.’
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons 2–3 (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. ‘They did this because Senegal was a long way from France and it was the best way to keep firm control of the country.’ ‘It involved direct rule which gave the French rulers in Senegal a lot of power to keep the country under French control.’ ‘It was used to civilise the local people in Senegal.’ ‘It was used because the French believed their culture was superior.’
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. ‘They did this because they knew it suited their needs best. It was better than other systems.’
	Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question 0

Question	Answer	Marks
3(c)	‘The Boxers achieved little.’ How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘how far’ 10 As Level 4 plus evaluation.
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides 7–9 A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.
	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks 4–6 More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘The Boxer Rebellion was an anti-foreigner movement in China. The Boxers attacked and killed Christian missionaries and all foreigners. Their aim was to drive out of China all foreign influences. However, an Eight Nation Alliance was put together by foreign countries like Britain and France. The Boxers were defeated and foreign troops were stationed in Beijing, and China had to pay an enormous fine. The Empress then began to introduce reforms along European lines. In the end, the Boxers failed to get rid of foreign influences.’ OR e.g. ‘At first the Boxers achieved much. They forced the Empress to support them and controlled much of the country. They even besieged Beijing. Although they were defeated, they have been praised in China for being patriotic and are seen as early nationalists. They have inspired many of the nationalist ideas in modern China because they were anti-imperialistic.’
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes 2–3 One mark for each point. e.g. ‘The Boxers were simply uncivilised barbarians and were never going to achieve much.’ ‘The Boxers were defeated and so they failed.’ ‘The rebellion ended with foreign troops being stationed in Beijing and so they achieved little.’ ‘They did not achieve much because China ended up being punished by the foreign powers very heavily.’ ‘They managed to persuade the Empress to support them.’ ‘They initially defeated the foreign forces.’ ‘They inspired Chinese nationalism.’
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. ‘The Boxers did not really achieve much. They tried to introduce their beliefs and ideas but did not get very far.’

4(a)	What was the result of the Algeciras Conference of 1906?	4
	Level 1 One mark for each relevant point; additional mark for supporting detail 1–4 e.g. 'The main result was that France and Britain formed a closer relationship.' 'The Entente Cordiale was strengthened.' 'Germany was disappointed with the outcome.' 'Germany failed in its plan to create a triple alliance.' 'There was no German presence in Africa.' 'It led to more people in Germany wanting war.' 'The Sultan kept control of the police force in Morocco.' 'The rights of Europeans to own land was established.' 'The Conference opened Moroccan trade to all nations.' 'Germany had to accept that the French and Spanish would police the ports in Morocco.'

Question	Answer	Marks
4(b)	Why were Serbian victories in the Balkans in 1912 and 1913 important?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons	6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation)	4–5
	e.g. 'The Serbian victories were important because they made Austria very nervous about Serbia. Its victories in both wars enabled it to increase its territory by about 80%. This made it more powerful and more of a threat to Austria. It was on Austria's borders and Austria was worried that it would stir up the Serbs in its empire and cause trouble for Austria. This is why, when the assassination of the Archduke took place in 1914, Austria declared war on Serbia. It saw it as an opportunity to defeat it and destroy it as a threat.'
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons (One mark for each identification/description)	2–3
	e.g. 'They made Serbia a much stronger country.' 'It gained territory from the Turkish Empire and from Bulgaria.' 'They made Serbia more of a threat to Austria.' 'They made it more of a danger as a power that could unify the Serbs in the Austrian Empire.'
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge	1
	e.g. 'The victories were very important to Serbia and made the whole area more of a problem.'
	Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question	0

Question	Answer	Marks
4(c)	‘German colonial ambitions were more important than the naval race as a cause of the First World War.’ How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘how far’ As Level 4 plus evaluation.	10
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.	7–9
	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘The naval race was very important in causing the First World War. Britain had the largest and most powerful navy and was determined to keep it this way. In 1906 it began to build dreadnoughts. These were so powerful they made all other battleships obsolete. This led to Germany building them as well. Britain kept ahead in the race but its effect was to lead to rivalry and much worse relations between Britain and Germany. Both countries thought the other was planning to cause a major war.’ OR e.g. ‘Germany’s colonial ambitions were easily more important. Germany had dropped behind other European powers in building an overseas empire. But the policy of Weltpolitik meant that Germany was planning to become a world power and a large part of this was acquiring colonies. This explains Germany’s actions over Morocco in 1905 and 1911. Both of these crises brought war closer by damaging relations between Germany and Britain and France and by driving Britain and France closer together. The battlelines for the First World War were appearing.’	4–6
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes One mark for each point. e.g. ‘The naval race increased tensions between Britain and Germany.’ ‘The naval race made Britain and Germany both think that the other was preparing for war.’ ‘The naval race added to the overall military atmosphere and tensions around Europe.’ ‘Germany’s colonial ambitions helped drive France and Britain together.’ ‘Germany’s actions over Morocco increased tensions in Europe.’ ‘Germany’s ambitions made other major powers think that it was after world domination.’	2–3

4(c)	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. 'I think that the naval race was more important because all the major powers wanted to build more ships.'

5(a)	What happened to Germany’s colonies in the Treaty of Versailles?	4
	Level 1 One mark for each relevant point; additional mark for supporting detail 1–4 e.g. ‘It lost all of its colonies.’ ‘Most of its colonies went to Britain and France.’ ‘Many of the colonies became mandates that were managed on behalf of the League of Nations.’ ‘Togoland went to Britain and France.’ ‘The Cameroons went to Britain and France.’ ‘German South West Africa went to Britain.’ ‘German East Africa went to Britain.’ ‘The Mariana Islands went to Japan.’ ‘The Caroline Islands went to Japan.’ ‘The Marshall Islands went to Japan.’ ‘German New Guinea went to Britain.’ ‘Ruanda and Urundi went to Belgium.’ ‘German Samoa went to New Zealand.’ ‘Portugal was granted the Kionga Triangle.’

Question	Answer	Marks
5(b)	Why was Turkey treated harshly in the Treaty of Sèvres?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons	6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'Turkey was treated harshly because it had a massive empire and other countries wanted parts of it. Britain and France had secretly started planning the breaking up of the empire as early as 1915 and had reached an agreement about what to do in 1917. The British wanted Palestine while France wanted Syria and Lebanon.'	4–5
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'Lots of countries wanted part of Turkey's empire.' 'It was treated harshly because it had fought on Germany's side in the war.' 'It was treated harshly because the settlement was left to Britain and France, both of whom wanted parts of the Empire.'	2–3
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge e.g. 'It was thought that Turkey deserved to be treated harshly because of everything it had done in the First World War.'	1
	Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question	0

5(c)	Who did Wilson find more difficult to deal with during the peace negotiations, Clemenceau or Lloyd George? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘who did Wilson find more difficult to deal with’ 10 As Level 4 plus evaluation.
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides 7–9 A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.
	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks 4–6 More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘I think he found Lloyd George much more difficult to deal with. This was because Lloyd George kept changing his mind while Clemenceau knew what he wanted and stuck to it. At first, Lloyd George, under pressure from the British public, demanded a harsh treaty in which Germany should pay the full cost of the war. However, he then changed his mind and decided he wanted a more moderate settlement because he did not want Germany to become too weak. This made him difficult for Wilson to deal with.’ OR e.g. ‘Clemenceau was more difficult to deal with for Wilson because he wanted such a harsh treaty and Wilson did not want this. Clemenceau was under pressure from the French people to achieve long-term security for France. Clemenceau wanted to punish and weaken Germany. He wanted very high reparations, Germany to lose the Rhineland, many of Germany’s colonies, and Alsace-Lorraine and the Saar Basin to be given to France. Most of these demands went against Wilson’s approach of a moderate treaty and self-determination. He wanted a settlement that would ensure peace in the future. This is why he found Clemenceau difficult to deal with.’

Question	Answer	Marks
5(c)	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes 2–3 One mark for each point. e.g. ‘Lloyd George changed his mind about what the settlement should be like.’ ‘At first Lloyd George wanted Germany punished by a harsh treaty.’ ‘Lloyd George later wanted a moderate treaty to ensure Germany was not weakened too much.’ ‘Lloyd George wanted to protect and even enlarge the British Empire.’ ‘Clemenceau wanted Germany’s colonies.’ ‘Clemenceau wanted Germany to be made much weaker and to lose a lot of territory.’ ‘Clemenceau wanted very high reparations to make Germany pay for the cost of the war.’ ‘Clemenceau was not interested in Wilson’s Fourteen Points. He only wanted what was good for France.’
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. ‘I think he found both of them very difficult to deal with because they both had their own strong opinions.’

6(b)	Why was the Spanish Civil War important to Hitler?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons 6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'It was important to Hitler because it allowed his air force, the Luftwaffe, to practise new tactics. It was able to practise dive-bombing, which it did in the attacks on the town of Guernica. This tactic was later used a lot in the Second World War where it developed into Blitzkrieg which was an important part of Germany's tactics.'
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons 2–3 (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'It was important to him to support a fellow fascist like Franco.' 'It was important because, if Franco won, there would be another country on Hitler's side.' 'It allowed him to try out new weapons and military tactics.' 'Fighting together in the Spanish Civil War brought Hitler and Mussolini closer together. Mussolini talked about the Rome-Berlin Axis.' 'It distracted western powers from what Germany was up to in central Europe.'
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. 'It was very important to Hitler because it allowed him to prepare his plans for what he wanted to do in the future.'

6(c)	Which was more to blame for war breaking out in September 1939, Germany or Britain? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘which was more to blame’ 10 As Level 4 plus evaluation.
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides 7–9 A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.
	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks 4–6 More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘I think Germany was definitely more to blame. Hitler had promised to leave the rest of Czechoslovakia alone when he got the Sudetenland in 1938. But in 1939, the German army took over the rest of the country. Hitler then went on and invaded Poland. Britain and France had given Poland a guarantee that they would help it if it was attacked. Hitler knew this, and so he knew that his invasion of Poland would lead to a major European war.’ OR e.g. ‘Britain was largely to blame because if it had stood up to Hitler earlier, the war would never have taken place. Since 1936, with the remilitarisation of the Rhineland, Germany had shown that it was aggressive and out to take over much of Europe. The Anschluss and the takeover of Czechoslovakia confirmed this. All that Britain did was to appease Hitler, and it even agreed at Munich for him to have the Sudetenland. If Britain had stood up to Hitler over the Rhineland, then Hitler may have drawn back and the war could have been avoided.’
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes 2–3 One mark for each point. e.g. ‘Germany invaded Czechoslovakia in 1938 and Poland in 1939.’ ‘Hitler had been following a policy of aggression and this would eventually lead to war.’ ‘The German invasion of Poland showed that Hitler wanted to dominate the whole of Europe.’ ‘Britain was to blame because of its policy of appeasement.’ ‘Britain was to blame because it gave Poland a guarantee.’ ‘Britain was to blame because it gave Hitler the impression that it would never act against him, no matter what Germany did.’
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. ‘I think both countries were to blame. They had both used tactics that were likely to bring war closer.’

7(b)	Why did the American policy of 'search and destroy' in Vietnam create problems?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons 6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'The policy of 'search and destroy' was the American way of trying to deal with the Vietcong's guerrilla tactics. American soldiers would raid Vietnamese villages trying to find enemy weapons, stores and fighters. In doing this they often turned villages upside down, destroying much of the village. They would punish any villagers found to be helping the Vietcong. This upset the villagers who turned against the Americans.'
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons 2–3 (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'It turned the Vietnamese peasants against the Americans.' 'It was difficult to know which villages were hiding the Vietcong and which were not.' 'The American soldiers conducting the searches were easily picked off by the Vietcong.' 'It turned people in the USA against the war.'
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. 'It created problems because it was a complete mistake. This policy should never have been used by the USA.'

7(c)	Was the Korean War a defeat for North Korea? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘was the Korean War a defeat’ As Level 4 plus evaluation.	10
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.	7–9
	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘I think it was a defeat for North Korea. At one point it had nearly overrun the whole of South Korea even capturing the capital Seoul. It looked as if the whole of Korea would become communist. However, UN and US troops then forced the North Koreans back to the 38 th Parallel. After a lot more fighting the war ended with both sides where they had started – at the 38 th Parallel. This meant that by the end of the war the North Koreans were where they had started, so this can be seen as a defeat.’ OR e.g. ‘I do not think it was a defeat for North Korea. At one point the UN and US forces were close to overrunning the whole of North Korea and creating a united and democratic Korea. This was the aim of the UN forces. This would have been a defeat for the North Koreans. However, helped by China, they managed to push the UN and US troops back and a communist North Korea was saved.’	5 to 6 4–6
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes One mark for each point. e.g. ‘North Korea’s aim was to unite Korea under communism and it failed to do this.’ ‘North Korea invaded South Korea, but in the end had to retreat.’ ‘It was not a defeat for North Korea because the UN aim was to make all Korea democratic and it failed in this.’ ‘North Korea only survived because it was helped by the Chinese army.’ ‘North Korea survived as a communist country when it was nearly taken over by UN troops.’	2–3

	Level 3 Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘They resisted his rule because of his policies towards them. He destroyed their villages and towns and killed thousands of them using mustard gas. In one attack at Halabja where planes dropped poison gas, thousands of people were killed or injured. They obviously wanted to get themselves free of this treatment by Saddam Hussein and this is why they resisted his rule.’

	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. 'I agree with this. The leader of the revolution against the Shah was Ayatollah Khomeini who was a Muslim cleric. For him, the religious factors were the most important. He argued against the Shah introducing western influences into the country. He argued that they went against Islam, and said that the country should be ruled by religious scholars. Although he was in exile, he was still influencing the mass protests which were taking place in Iran. When he returned, he was greeted as a hero. This showed that religion was an important factor.' OR e.g. 'The revolution was really about the Shah's autocratic and repressive rule. He turned the country into a one-party state and his secret police searched out, arrested and tortured political opponents. He had informers everywhere and there was censorship everywhere. However, in 1977 he allowed more freedom and released some political prisoners. This did not help him; it simply encouraged his opponents and created the opportunity for mass protests to break out across the country.'
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes One mark for each point. e.g. 'The revolution was really about the poor standard of living of Iranians and the way that the Shah flaunted his wealth.' 'It was motivated by his autocratic and cruel way of governing the country.' 'Unemployment was very high.' 'He spent enormous amounts on the armed forces while many of the people were poor.' 	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘I think criticism of Haig is justified because he made too many easy assumptions. He hoped that seven days of heavy shelling would destroy the German defences. He hoped that the shells would blow huge gaps in the defensive wire protecting the German trenches. He over-estimated the impact of the shells. The German dugouts were deep underground and reinforced by concrete and, as a result, the shells had little effect. The wire was tangled into a dense mess rather than having huge holes blown in it. This meant that when the Allied soldiers attacked, they stood little chance and were shot down in their thousands.’ OR e.g. ‘I think that Haig has been criticised too much. Haig had to plan the Battle of the Somme very quickly after the German attack on Verdun. He was not given the number of troops he believed he needed to win the Somme. He thought he needed double the number he had. Also, he was a product of his time and was bound to use the tactics that he was used to and had been trained in. It would take commanders some time to realise that new tactics were needed.’	5 to 6 4–6

	Level 3 Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘This was very important and its failure decided the outcome of the war. The idea was to use German U-boats to sink all the merchant ships bringing supplies to Britain from the USA. These supplies were desperately needed for Britain to continue the war effort. The campaign was so successful that at one time Britain only had days of supplies left and had to introduce rationing. Britain was saved by using convoys of merchant ships which allowed many of them to get through. This saved Britain in the war.’
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons 2–3 (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. ‘It was planned to sink merchant ships supplying Britain.’ ‘Enormous numbers of merchant ships were sunk in the Atlantic.’ ‘Supplies were so low that Britain had to introduce rationing.’ ‘Britain was close to running out of food and supplies.’ ‘Britain came near to defeat.’ ‘Britain was saved by the introduction of convoys.’

	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks 4–6 More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘Stresemann was very important to its recovery. He brought economic stability and confidence back by ending hyperinflation, introducing a permanent currency, the Reichsmark, and by reducing government spending. Stresemann had worked closely with the Americans in securing loans under the Dawes Plan, which were invested in German industry. All this set the Republic on the road to recovery.’ OR e.g. ‘I think there were other factors in the recovery of the Weimar Republic. Firstly, Germany’s economic position was never as bad as it looked. German industry and business had plenty of potential and this explains why it recovered after 1924 as quickly as it did. Secondly, some of the recovery, in cultural areas, was not much to do with Stresemann. There was a cultural revival with the lifting of censorship and the opening of new night clubs and restaurants. There were also important achievements in art, film and literature.’

	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons 6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'The Gestapo was the secret police force. It was very important because of the spying it did on ordinary people. Its spies were everywhere, in offices, shops, clubs and could be your next-door neighbour. They tapped people's telephones, looked at their post and had a network of informers. Ordinary people often informed on each other, especially neighbours they did not like. All of this created a climate of fear and helped the Nazis stay in power.'

Far more serious were attempts like the July Bomb Plot of 1944 when senior army officers plotted to kill Hitler and end the war. A bomb was set off in a briefcase near where Hitler was working but someone moved the briefcase at the last moment and the blast missed Hitler. However, if this had worked and killed Hitler it would have been devastating.' OR e.g. 'I agree with this. Some of the youth opposition was important. The Edelweiss Pirates attacked members of the Hitler Youth and carried out sabotage. During the war they hid army deserters and gave out Allied leaflets. They even assassinated a leader of the Gestapo. The White Rose movement distributed leaflets encouraging people to resist the Nazis and criticised the treatment of the Jews. 	Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation)	4–5
	e.g. 'The mutiny at Kronstadt was important because it was a big factor in forcing Lenin to replace War Communism with the New Economic Policy. The mutiny was partly about the hardship being suffered by people because of War Communism. 14(c)	'It was the Purges that gave Stalin control of the USSR.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of 'how far' As Level 4 plus evaluation.
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.
	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. 'I think Stalin had control because of the personality cult that he created. Pictures of Stalin appeared everywhere and he was presented as the saviour of Russia and given god-like status. He was shown to represent everything that was good about Russia. Because of this, many Russians genuinely supported him and this gave him the control.' OR e.g. 'I think the Purges did give Stalin control. Over 500,000 party members were arrested on charges of anti-Soviet activities and were either executed or sent to gulags. Over 25,000 army officers were removed from office. Stalin made sure no-one became too powerful and did not therefore undermine his authority. If anyone in the Communist Party was a possible rival, then he dealt with them.'
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes One mark for each point. e.g. 'They did not give him complete control because local officials often ignored instructions.' 'People's private lives were not always controlled by Stalin.' 'Stalin used the 'Cult of Stalin' to gain control over the people.' 'Many ordinary citizens admired Stalin and wanted to obey him because of the personality cult.' 'It was Stalin's use of propaganda that gave him control of the Soviet Union.' 'The 'Great Terror' removed opposition to Stalin.' 'The new constitution gave total power to Stalin.' 'The kulaks were removed for disobeying Stalin.' 	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons 6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'The motor car was important because of the impact it had on lots of other industries. Many people could afford a car and millions were sold. This created a demand for lots of other products like rubber and glass. It also meant that more roads had to be built as well as garages and restaurants. Many parts of the American economy were stimulated, and new jobs created, by the motor car.'
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons 2–3 (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'The motor car was important because it changed people's lives. People could now go on holiday.' 'Its production introduced the assembly line that was used in many other industries.' 'It created a demand for other products like glass.' 'The motor car industry provided lots of jobs.' 'Roads, restaurants and garages had to be built, creating new jobs.' 'People could now live in suburbs so these grew in size.' 'It stimulated the whole American economy.'

	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks 4–6 More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘Many farmers did not benefit from the economic boom. This was because demand for their food fell and prices fell as well. They could not sell all they produced, and they got less money for it. This was because of the end of the war and competition from Canada and other countries. Soon many farmers were bankrupt and had to sell up.’ OR e.g. ‘Farmers with very large farms in the Mid-West did do well, as well as fruit growers in California. The large wheat growers in the Mid-West had mechanised and could produce wheat cheaply so they prospered. The fruit growers in areas like Florida and California benefited from the fact that more Americans turned to eating more fruit. So this increased demand for their produce.’
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes 2–3 One mark for each point. e.g. ‘Farmers suffered from overseas competition.’ ‘Farmers suffered from overproduction.’ ‘Farmers suffered from a fall in prices.’ ‘Farmers could not repay the loans they had taken out.’ ‘Farmers suffered from other countries introducing tariffs.’ ‘Demand for wool and cotton declined.’ ‘Many farm workers lost their jobs.’ ‘Small farmers could no longer afford their rents or mortgage repayments.’ ‘Prohibition reduced the demand for barley.’ ‘Many Americans were eating more fruit and fewer cereals.’ ‘Mechanisation meant fewer jobs and lower wages.’ ‘The large wheat farmers could produce wheat more cheaply.’

Hoover was a Republican and so was against the government helping people much. He thought that people should stand on their own two feet and look after their families themselves. People lost their jobs and became homeless but Hoover did little. The measures he did pass like reducing taxes and buying surplus farm produce was too little, too late. His actions against the Bonus Army in Washington showed that he did not care much.' OR e.g. 'I think this is unfair. The problem was an enormous one and there was bound to be a big impact on people's lives. Hoover did pass some measures. He started building programmes like the Hoover Dam to provide jobs. 	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. 'The social reforms were much more important because they made a real difference to people's lives. Free health care was introduced. Prevention of disease was focused on and the number of doctors was increased. These measures produced dramatic results – rates of illness fell dramatically. Education was also improved and the literacy rate went up to 90% of the population. This meant people were able to contribute better to China's economic development.' OR e.g. 'The introduction of communes was more important – it had a greater impact on people's lives. In the communes people's lives were transformed. All aspects of their lives were provided for and controlled. Schools were provided and the very young and old were looked after. People no longer worked on their own farms but worked on massive commune farms where their working lives were controlled. 	Level 3 One sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. 'His policy of total strategy was aimed at dealing with the threats to apartheid and minority government. It was meant to deal with threats inside and outside South Africa. Inside South Africa he tried to pass some reforms that would stop some people from protesting but also deal firmly with those that kept causing trouble. He introduced a new constitution which gave the vote to some non-white groups. This did not win most of them over because few voted in the first elections. The trouble with other reforms like getting rid of some segregation laws and allowing more black people to live in towns, was that they did not go far enough to win anyone over and a new wave of protests broke out. Botha had to introduce a State of Emergency in 1985.' OR e.g. 'Botha thought that one threat he could deal with was the threat from ANC training camps in neighbouring states. These camps were in countries like Zambia and Zimbabwe. To deal with them he ordered air strikes against them. He also introduced some reforms inside South Africa such as legalising interracial marriage and relaxing the Group Areas Act. He also authorised contacts with Mandela. So, it could be said that he started South Africa off on a direction that would lead to the settlement that was eventually reached by Mandela and de Klerk. This was also true of his social, labour and economic reforms which began moves towards non-racialism.'	4–6

21(c)	How far were British actions to blame for the crisis in Palestine after the Second World War? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘how far’
	As Level 4 plus evaluation.
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides
	A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.
	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks	4–6
	More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks.
	e.g. ‘I think the British were to blame. Before the war, and during it, they had raised hopes for both Arab and Jewish states. Both groups were hopeful when the war ended. However, the British then surprised and disappointed everyone by refusing to leave Palestine. It wanted to stay so that it could control the Eastern Mediterranean. The situation was made worse when Britain then tried to limit Jewish immigration into Palestine. This caused a lot of criticism. All these actions by Britain led to Jews starting a violent campaign to drive the British out. However, this was Britain’s fault for refusing to go in the first place.’
	OR e.g. ‘The crisis in Palestine was caused by Jews. In 1946 they started a campaign of terror in Palestine against the British. The worst part was the blowing up of the King David Hotel and the killing of over 90 people. Hundreds of British soldiers were killed by the terrorists. Jews were responsible for turning the situation into one of terrible violence and Britain was forced out.’
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes
	One mark for each point.	2–3
	e.g. ‘Britain failed to leave Palestine.’ ‘Britain was to blame because it had raised the hopes of both Arabs and Jews.’ ‘The Jews were responsible for starting a campaign of terror.’ ‘The issue was a very difficult one with two opposing groups both wanting their own state. It was no one’s fault that there was a crisis.’
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge
	e.g. ‘The British were to blame. The decisions they made were hopeless and were bound to lead to trouble.’

22(b)	Why has the United Nations failed to solve the issue of Palestinian refugees?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons 6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'The UN has played a large role in the issue of Palestine and has provided refugee camps with supplies. However, it has not managed to solve the issue. One reason for this has been the opposition of Israel. In 1948 the UN passed a resolution for all Palestinians to be allowed to return to their homes. Israel rejected this resolution and was more interested in turning the Palestinian land into settlements for Jewish immigrants. Without Israel's cooperation there was no way that the issue could be sorted out.'
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons 2–3 (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'Israel has not agreed to the refugees returning to their villages.' 'Arab states and Israel have not been able to agree over the issue.' 'It was in Arab interests to keep the refugees as refugees, as it gave them something to criticise Israel with.' 'The international community has not been focused on solving the issue so the UN has been powerless.'
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. 'The United Nations has not succeeded in solving the issue of refugees because it is a very difficult problem to sort out.'

22(c)	How far have Arab states supported the Palestine Liberation Organisation (PLO)? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘how far’ As Level 4 plus evaluation.
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.
	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘The Arab states have not supported the PLO as much as might be expected. In 1970, Jordan expelled it but this was because Jordan thought that the PLO was plotting to overthrow its king. However, it has not been treated well by other Arab countries. Syria has attacked it and expelled it from Lebanon. In the 1970s, Egypt took away its support when it started to negotiate a peace settlement with Israel. It seems that many Arab countries have been using the PLO when it suited their own country’s interests.’ OR e.g. ‘Some of the Arab states have supported the PLO. In 1974, the Arab League recognised the PLO as the only true representative of the Palestinian people and accepted it as a member of the League. This led to Arafat being invited to speak to the UN. The PLO has been funded by some Arab states, especially Saudi Arabia.’
	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes One mark for each point. e.g. ‘The PLO attracted much hostility from Arab states because of their actions.’ ‘Both Syria and Jordan expelled the PLO.’ ‘Egypt abandoned it when making peace with Israel.’ ‘Many Arab countries have not given the PLO the money they promised it.’ ‘Some Arab countries have used the PLO to further their own interests.’ ‘The PLO had a destabilising influence in the countries where it operated and so these countries did not support it.’ ‘Some countries such as Saudi Arabia have supported it with money.’ ‘The Arab League recognised it as the only true representative of the Palestinian people.’	2–3
