Lone Travellers

Travel agents and tour operators are increasing their packages for lone travellers as there has been an increase in the number of people travelling alone.

Lone travellers are normally charged a supplement for single person usage on package holidays and hotel rooms. Single travellers can be charged as much as double that of a couple and some hotels and cruise ships offer no single rooms at all. Some travellers have no one they can go on holiday with and so cannot afford to go at all.

Lone Travellers is a tour operator specialising in packages for single travellers. Their products include packages tailored to single travellers with single rooms, affordable prices and no supplements.
