Cambridge International General Certificate of Secondary Education

MARK SCHEME for the May/June 2015 series

0500 FIRST LANGUAGE ENGLISH

0500/31

Paper 3 (Directed Writing and Composition), maximum raw mark 50

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2015 series for most Cambridge IGCSE®, Cambridge International A and AS Level components and some Cambridge O Level components.

Note: All Examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unexpected approaches in candidates' scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the relevant knowledge and skills demonstrated. Nonetheless, the content must be clearly related to and derived from the passage.

Section 1: Directed Writing

This question tests writing assessment objectives W1 to W5 (15 marks)

W1 articulate experience and express what is thought, felt and imagined

W2 sequence facts, ideas and opinions

W3 use a range of appropriate vocabulary

W4 use register appropriate to audience and context

W5 make accurate use of spelling, punctuation and grammar and reading assessment objectives R1 to R3 (10 marks)

- identify and evaluate the skills and qualities needed as a volunteer
- explain why you want to volunteer and why you consider yourself to be a suitable applicant

Base your letter on what you have read in the passage, but be careful to use your own words. Address each of the two bullet points.

Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer, and up to 15 marks for the quality of your writing. [25]

Responses may use the following ideas: there may be some overlap between these points:

A1: the skills and qualities needed as a volunteer:

- Adaptable and wide-ranging computer skills. ('sharing photographs, sending emails...managing budgets, comparing prices', privacy etc.)
- Teaching skills
- Imagination ('life without gadgets...')
- Patience with 'digital novices', the ability to inspire confidence
- Respect for old people, without patronising them
- Sensitivity about what old people want to learn
- Understanding of how old people might perceive teenagers.

A2: they may also explore ideas such as:

- Experience needed for university applications
- Mutual benefits for both young and old
- Learning from old people
- Giving old people access to the modern world
- Understanding/tolerance between generations.

The discriminator is the evaluation of the arguments, which requires candidates to draw inferences and make judgements about the kinds of qualities needed in a volunteer. Perceptive responses may prioritise and rank these qualities sensitively. Ideas and opinions must be derived from the passage, assessing their implications with clear and persuasive arguments.

Marking criteria for Section 1, Question 1.

Table A, Writing:

Use the following table to give a mark out of 15 for Writing.

|---------------|--------------|--|
| Band 1 | 13–15 | Consistent sense of audience; authoritative and appropriate style. Fluent, varied sentences; wide range of vocabulary. Strong sense of structure, paragraphing and sequence. Spelling, punctuation and grammar almost always accurate. |
| Band 2 | 10–12 | Sense of audience mostly secure; there is evidence of style and fluency; sentences and vocabulary are effective. Secure overall structure; mostly well sequenced. Spelling, punctuation and grammar generally accurate.                |
| Band 3 | 7–9   | Occasional sense of audience; mostly written in correctly structured sentences; vocabulary may be plain but adequate for the task; mostly quite well structured. Minor, but more frequent errors of spelling, punctuation and grammar. |
| Band 4 | 5–6   | Inconsistent style; simple or faultily constructed sentences; vocabulary simple; basic structure. Frequent errors of spelling, punctuation and grammar.  |
| Band 5 | 3–4   | Inappropriate expression; the response is not always well sequenced. Errors of spelling, punctuation and grammar impair communication.   |
| Band 6 | 1–2   | Expression unclear; flawed sentence construction and order. Persistent errors of spelling, punctuation and grammar impede communication.   |
| Band 7 | 0     | The response cannot be understood.   |

Table B, Reading:

Use the following table to give a mark out of 10 for Reading.

|---------------|-------------|---|
| Band 1 | 9–10 | Gives a thorough, perceptive, convincing response. Reads effectively between the lines. Shows understanding by developing much of the reading material and assimilating it into a response to the task. |
| Band 2 | 7–8  | Some evidence of evaluation, engaging with a few of the main points with success. Uses reading material to support the argument. Occasionally effective development of ideas from the passages.         |
| Band 3 | 5–6  | Reproduces a number of points to make a satisfactory response. The response covers the material adequately, but may miss opportunities to develop it relevantly or at length.                           |
| Band 4 | 3–4  | Selects points from the passages rather literally and/or uses the material thinly. Points may not be connected.   |
| Band 5 | 1–2  | Parts of the response are relevant, though the material may be repeated or used inappropriately.  |
| Band 6 | 0    | There is very little or no relevance to the question or to the passages, or the response copies unselectively or directly from the passages.  |

|               |              |   | Descriptive Writing   | Narrative Writing   |
| Band 1 | 11–13 | W1: Content is complex, sophisticated and realistic.W2: Overall structure is secure and the constituent parts well balanced and carefully managed.  | Many well-defined and developed ideas and images create a convincing, original, overall picture with varieties of focus.   | The plot is convincing with elements of fiction such as description, characterisation and climax, and with cogent detail.                            |
| Band 2 | 9–10  | W1: Content develops some interesting and realistic features in parts of the writing.W2: Writing is orderly, and beginnings and endings are satisfactorily managed.   | Frequent, well-chosen images and details give an impression of reality, although the overall picture is not consistent.    | The plot incorporates some interesting features, but not consistently so: the reader may be aware of the creation of suspense and a sense of climax. |
| Band 3 | 7–8   | W1: Content is straightforward with ideas, features and images that satisfactorily address the task; some opportunities for development are taken.W2: Overall structure is competent and some sentences are well sequenced. | A selection of relevant ideas, images and details addresses the task, even where there is a tendency to write a narrative. | The plot is straightforward and cohesive with some identification of features such as character and setting.   |
| Band 4 | 5–6   | W1: Content consists of relevant ideas that are briefly developed.W2: Overall structure is easily followed, though some constituent parts are too long or too short to be effective.  | The task is addressed with a series of ordinary details, which may be more typical of a narrative.                         | Recording of relevant but sometimes unrealistic events outweighs other desirable elements of narrative fiction.                                      |

| Band 5 | 3–4 | W1: Content is simple, and the presentation of ideas and events may only be partially credible.W2: Overall structure is recognisable though paragraphing is inconsistent and sequences of sentences insecure. | Where a narrative is written, the recording of events may preclude the use of sufficient descriptive detail. | The plot is a simple narrative that may consist of events that are only partially credible or which are presented with partial clarity. |
| Band 6 | 1–2 | W1: Content is inconsistent in relevance, interest and clarity.W2: Structure is frequently unclear, revealing a limited grasp of purpose.   | Some relevant facts are identified, but the overall picture is unclear and lacks development.                | The plot lacks coherence and narrates events indiscriminately.  |
| Band 7 | 0   | W1: Content is rarely relevant and there is little material.W2: The structure is disorderly.  | Individual ideas are not properly communicated and the effect is one of incoherence.                         | The plot is hard to follow and is only partially relevant.  |
