- 4 Nikita is a trader. The totals of her trial balance at 30 June 2021 did not agree. The debits exceeded the credits by $2600. Nikita opened up a suspense account.

The following errors were later discovered.

- 1 Insurance of $2500 had been entered as $4500 in the insurance account. The correct entry had been made in the cash book.
- 2 The total of the discount received column in the cash book of $500 had been debited to the discount allowed account in the general ledger.
- 3 Credit sales of $1400 to Kajal had been correctly entered in the sales account, but debited as $1000 in Kajal's account.
- 4 A cheque of $700 received from Anisah had been correctly entered in the cash book, but credited to Aisha's account.

REQUIRED

- (a) Prepare journal entries to correct errors 1 to 4. Narratives are not required.

5 Simon has a business selling office stationery. On 1 January 2019 he owned two delivery vehicles which had been purchased on 1 January 2018.

Delivery vehicle A had cost $30 000 and delivery vehicle B had cost $25 000.

Simon uses the straight-line method for depreciating the delivery vehicles. A rate of 20% per annum on cost is used, with the rate being applied for each part of the year for which the delivery vehicles are owned.

Due to a decline in business, delivery vehicle B was sold on 31 March 2020 and a cheque for $10 350 was received. Delivery vehicle A was still in use at the end of 2020.

REQUIRED

(a) Complete the following accounts for each of the years ended 31 December 2019 and 2020. Balance the accounts at the end of each year where appropriate.
