General Marking Guidance

- All candidates must receive the same treatment. Examiners must mark the first candidate in exactly the same way as they mark the last.
- Mark schemes should be applied positively. Candidates must be rewarded for what they have shown they can do rather than penalised for omissions.
- Examiners should mark according to the mark scheme not according to their perception of where the grade boundaries may lie.
- There is no ceiling on achievement. All marks on the mark scheme should be used appropriately.
- All the marks on the mark scheme are designed to be awarded. Examiners should always award full marks if deserved, i.e. if the answer matches the mark scheme. Examiners should also be prepared to award zero marks if the candidate's response is not worthy of credit according to the mark scheme.
- Where some judgement is required, mark schemes will provide the principles by which marks will be awarded and exemplification may be limited.
- When examiners are in doubt regarding the application of the mark scheme to a candidate's response, the team leader must be consulted.
- Crossed out work should be marked UNLESS the candidate has replaced it with an alternative response.

Section A: Supported multiple choice

N.B. If part (a) of the question is INCORRECT, then a maximum of 2 marks can be awarded for part (b).

Question Number	Question	Marks
1 (a)	Answer: D (the end of the iPod's product life cycle)	1
1 (b)	Explain why this answer is correct: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Definition of product life cycle e.g. the different stages a product passes through from introduction to withdrawal or eventual demise (1)</li> <li>• The iPod Classic has already been extended 6 times/has declining revenue/sales (1)</li> <li>• The iPod cannot be extended again in a profitable way so is no longer being manufactured (1)</li> </ul> Alternatively, up to two of the marks above can be achieved by explaining (not defining) distracters, for example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A is wrong because Apple is one of the most well-known MP3 brands and would be able to raise awareness of the iPod Classic (1)</li> <li>• B is wrong because high profit margins would encourage Apple to sell more of the iPod Classic and not discontinue it (1)</li> <li>• C is wrong because less competition would result in more sales for the iPod Classic so it would continue to be sold (1)</li> </ul> Any acceptable answer that shows selective knowledge/understanding/application and/or development. N.B. up to 2 marks out of 3 may be gained for part (b) if part (a) is incorrect.	1-3 (Total 4)

	(Knowledge 1, Application 1, Analysis 2) Knowledge/understanding: up to 1 mark is available for a giving a benefit e.g. higher prices/less competition/brand loyalty (1) Application: up to 1 mark is available for contextualised answers to Heck Foods, e.g. their premium sausages are high quality/come in different shapes and sizes (Evidence A) (1) Analysis: up to 2 marks are available for developing the above, this may lead to Heck Foods being able to maximise profits on its sales of premium sausages (1) as the higher prices will more than cover costs/increase profitability (1)	1 1 1-2

Question Number	Question
9(b)	Assess the benefits to Heck Foods of using such a method.		(8 marks)
Level	Mark	Descriptor	Possible content
1	1-2	Knowledge/understanding of labour intensive	e.g. when production relies more on labour than capital
2	3-4	Application must be present, i.e. the answer must be contextualised to Heck Foods	e.g. Evidence C states that their sausages are made by hand in small batches  e.g. Heck Foods only make a maximum of 50 kilos at a time
3	5-6	Analysis in context must be present, i.e. in this case the candidate must identify and explain the reasons/causes/costs/consequences of being labour intensive  NB if analysis is not in context limit to Level 2.	e.g. can provide a personal touch as there is a growing demand from consumers for home produced foods (Evidence A)  e.g. staff, unlike machinery can be used flexibly to meet changing levels of consumer demand, such as the use of temporary workers  e.g. can improve the quality/image of the business as customers prefer hand-made food products
4	7-8	Evaluation must be present and in context showing the impact of being labour intensive for Heck Foods  Award 7 marks if one side only is in context  Award 8 marks if BOTH sides are in context  NB if evaluation not in context limit to Level 3.	e.g. Relatively expensive in the long-term to produce the small 50 kilo batches when compared to machinery with higher per unit costs due to lower levels of productivity.  e.g. There could be a shortage of skilled labour/problems with staffing levels which hinder productivity especially as they can only produce 50 kilos at a time

10	Assess the likely difficulties Heck Foods might experience when sales forecasting.		12
Level	Mark	Descriptor	Possible content
1	1-2	Knowledge/understanding of sales forecasting must be present	e.g. a method of predicting future sales levels using an analysis of existing information
2	3-4	Application must be present, i.e. the answer must be contextualised to Heck Foods sales forecasting	e.g. Evidence A states that Heck Foods sales forecast is on target to deliver £7m in 2015  e.g. Heck Foods have already achieved a 14% increase on its initial sales forecast.
3	5-6	Analysis in context must be present, i.e. the candidate must give reasons/causes/costs/consequences of the difficulties Heck Foods might face in sales forecasting  NB if analysis is not in context limit to Level 2.	e.g. Historical data may not reflect future sales performance as sales growth has been very rapid and has already been underestimated (Evidence A)  e.g. There is still competition from other sausage makers such as own brand chicken sausages from Waitrose and M&amp;S which adds to the uncertainty to sales forecasts for Heck Foods  e.g. changes in external factors such as economic variables/ actions of competitors/ government, the market/changes in food tastes and changes in costs such as meat prices cannot be predicted and therefore negatively affects the accuracy Heck Foods sales forecast
4	7-12	Low Level 4: 7-8 marks Limited evaluation must be present and in context  Mid Level 4: 9-10 marks More evaluation will be present and in context  High Level 4: 11-12 marks	e.g. Heck Foods has been in business since 2012 so some historical data exists and will be able to use its own experience to help forecast likely demand for future food products  e.g. Heck Foods has the financial backing of

		Evaluation is developed to show a candidate's real perceptiveness. Several strands may be developed: the answer is clear, coherent and articulate, leading to a convincing conclusion. NB if evaluation not in context limit to Level 3.	Panoramic Growth Equity who have plenty of financial experience to help produce sales forecasts e.g. Heck Foods only has a small product range so it should be easier to plan for the future compared to businesses with a large product range

11	Evaluate how contingency finance planning could be used by Heck Foods when managing working capital.		14
Level	Mark	Descriptor	Possible content
1	1-2	Knowledge/understanding of what is meant by contingency finance planning/working capital Material presented is often irrelevant and lacks organisation. Frequent punctuation and/or grammar errors are likely to be present and the writing is generally unclear.	e.g. includes the use of overdrafts, loans, factoring, introduction of extra cash by owner/shareholders e.g. working capital is CA-CL
2	3-4	Application must be present, i.e. the answer must be contextualised and applied to Heck Foods Material is presented with some relevance but there are likely to be passages which lack proper organisation. Punctuation and/or grammar errors are likely to be present that affect clarity and coherence.	e.g. Heck Foods have already secured £1m of capital investment to expand production capabilities e.g. Evidence D states that Heck Foods also have a range of contingency finance methods available to them in the short term e.g. Heck Foods are planning to expand production and the range of meat products so may need additional working capital
3	5-8	Analysis in context must be present, i.e. the candidate must give reasons/causes/costs/consequences of contingency finance planning to Heck Foods NB if analysis is not in context limit to Level 2. Material is presented in a generally relevant and logical way but this may not be sustained throughout. Some punctuation and/or grammar errors may be found which cause some passages to lack clarity or coherence.	e.g. overdrafts are very flexible and can enable Heck Foods to purchase inventory such as meat for their sausages when they have a negative cash flow e.g. loans can be used to purchase a wide range of items such as sausage production equipment for the business and have the advantage of being repaid over a period of time e.g. factoring can be used to access cash quickly without having to chase up debtors/debtors such as Tesco are reliable businesses with less risk e.g. additional cash from the owners/shareholders Andrew

			and Debbie Keeble has the advantage that there is no interest on this source of contingency finance
4	9-14	Low Level 4: 9-10 marks. Evaluation must be present and in context on one side, e.g. showing possible advantages and disadvantages of contingency finance planning for Heck Foods Mid Level 4: 11-12 marks Evaluation must be present and in context on both sides of using financial/non-financial techniques High Level 4: 13-14 marks Evaluation is developed to show a candidate's real perceptiveness. Several strands may be developed: the answer is clear, coherent and articulate, leading to a convincing conclusion. NB if evaluation not in context limit to Level 3. Material is presented in a relevant and logical way. Some punctuation and/or grammar errors may be found but the writing has overall clarity and coherence.	e.g. overdrafts often have very high rates of interest and are repayable on demand by the bank if sales of chicken sausages are unsuccessful and there is negative cash flow e.g. bank loans often have high rates of interest depending on the credit worthiness and length of time the loan is for. Collateral may be needed from Andrew Keeble to secure the bank loan against e.g. factoring decreases profits as it reduces the total revenue received from those sales received from Tesco e.g. there may be a limit to how much cash the owners and shareholders Andrew and Debbie Keeble are able to invest into the business and carries a risk of it being lost if the business is unsuccessful e.g. Heck Foods would need to use a range of contingency finance to manage working capital requirements depending on how much is required for day to day running of the business
